

Russell J. Compton Center for Peace & Justice Presents

CAMP

Monday, Sept. 28

11:40 a.m. "Queer Live Act" Join United DePauw in a discussion about the relationship between LGBTQA community and straight allies.

4:15 p.m. "Got Rights?" Amnesty International will lead a discussion about the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

5:30 p.m. "Are you a Peacebuilder?" The Indianapolis Peace Institute will share info on their programs and lead an ethical debate with your peers.

7:30 p.m. A Night of Acoustic Music Local musicians Doug Cox, Ron Dye, Rick Hillis & Dave Worthington play social justice favorites.

Tuesday, Sept. 29

11:40 a.m. "Lady GaGa, Sexual Violence & Risk Reduction" Ann Malloy leads a discussion about the link between song lyrics and behavior on college campuses.

4:15 p.m. "The Limits & Possibilities of Democratic Communication" Drawing on insights from political economy, social theory, & critical media studies, this discussion considers the current state of the US media system. Facilitated by Dr. Kevin Howley.

5:30 p.m. "Is Violence Inherent to Human Nature?" Join the Philosophy Club in exploring this age old question.

7:30 p.m. "The Road to Peace in the Middle East" Prof. Chernus will discuss roadblocks in the past & present that have kept Israelis & Palestinians from making peace, as well as some new & surprising forces that have emerged in the US to make an Israeli-Palestinian peace agreement possible. Facilitated by Dr. Ira Chernus, Professor of Religious Studies, University of Colorado, Boulder.

In Watson Forum

9:00 p.m. Privilege Walk Is DePauw a great equalizer? Come find out! This interactive activity will demonstrate how social identifiers that are out of participants' control have affected their privilege and the rights of members of their community. Michelina Ferrara '12

All events are free & open to the public and will take place in the Academic Quad unless otherwise stated. Rain locations will be posted at Peace Camp.

Wednesday, Sept 30

11:40 a.m. "Critical of Israel = Anti-Semitic, Or Does It?" Prof. Chernus discusses the "pro-Israel" right and why peace activists have the moral & political truth on their side.

4:15 p.m. "The Greencastle Effect" Missy! Orr '09 talks about how our greater community is setting a national environmental example.

5:15 p.m. Hispanic Heritage Month Come celebrate with the Committee for Latino Concerns.

7:30 p.m. "Cornfields to Copenhagen" Climate change will change civilization as we know it. How can students get involved in the policy responses? A discussion with students from the DePauw Environmental Policy Project.

10:00 p.m. Open Mic Power Hour Let your words fly at this spoken word open mic session. Perform your poetry, read your stories and sing your songs. Featuring performances by Naiomy Guerrero and Luis Paulino.

Thursday, Oct. 1

11:40 a.m. "Building Uganda: Opportunities, Challenges, and Solutions" Join us for an interactive discussion about the future of education, health, and life in the Pearl of Africa. Facilitated by George Srour, Founder, Building Tomorrow & Dr. Sharon Cray.

4:15 p.m. "Conferencing for Justice" Dr. Jeremy Rinker will outline the community conferencing model as a method for dealing with crime in this interactive talk.

5:30 p.m. Feminista! Presents... "Shutdown in Church: Murdered for Choice" Join us for an interactive discussion on the dilemma of abortion providers in America.

7:30 p.m. Sustainability Hour with the DePauw Environmental Club Chloe Lawson '12 will share tips to increase your individual sustainability factor as well as how to start your own sustainability project.

Friday, Oct. 2

11:40 a.m. "Creation of the Guatemalan Dream" Patricia Anderson '09 discusses sustainable, autonomous economic and educational development in Guatemala.