

2024 Fall Risk Management, Insurance and Actuarial Science Guest Speaker Series

Presentation title: The Collapse of Silicon Valley Bank

Presentation Abstract:

Silicon Valley Bank, the banks of Venture Capital Companies and their investments, suddenly implodes and puts the global financial system at risk. Actuary and speaker, Charles Johnson, breaks down some fundamental financial ideas that students learn in their classes; and shows how they apply to this unique event. Showcasing the value of understanding applied math and risk in finance.”

Bio:

Charles Johnson is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, Chartered Enterprise Risk Analyst, Member of the Academy of Actuaries, and former Life Actuary at Pacific Life Insurance, State Farm, and Northwestern Mutual. As a student, he was President of the Actuarial Science Major at Illinois State and has 10 years of corporate actuarial recruitment experience. He now serves as the CEO of the Actuarial Development Institute and the Owner of LO Stine Investments.

Date

November 13th

4-5PM

Julian 147

Register here!

Charles Johnson

FSA, CERA, MAAA & CEO of Actuarial Development Institute

Sponsored by the Spencer Course Development Grant and the AF Group

